ONE NATION ONE SUBSCRIPTION (ONOS)

Open access publishing - APC funding support

ONOS is a Government of India initiative designed to give researchers access to international scholarly journals through one centrally negotiated subscription.

If you are affiliated with a member institution, you can access the journals at the ONOS portal (onos.gov.in), coordinated by the Information and Library Network Centre (INFLIBNET).

ONOS also supports open access (OA) publishing through Article Processing Charge (APC) funding, enabling researchers to publish OA in selected journals. For more information, please visit the ONOS portal onos.gov.in/apc-support.

EDITORIAL ACCEPTANCE

Email invite to complete the publishing process

Once the article is editorially accepted by the journal, the corresponding author receives an email invitation to complete the publishing process.

The corresponding author acts on behalf of all the other authors for this article. They are responsible for reviewing and accepting the terms of the publishing agreement, and for arranging payment.

SPRINGER NATURE

Dear Dr. Charles Darwin,

We're delighted that your article has been accepted for publication:
'The zoology of the voyage of H.M.S. Beagle'.

You now need to:

- Provide details to help us check whether your article processing charge (APC) is covered by your institution or a journal partner.
- Read and accept your publishing agreement.
- Make a payment if the APC is not covered.

If you want to publish subscription, instead of open access, there will be an option to do that in the following steps.

Continue with publishing your article:

<https://publishing-and-rights.springernature.app/workflow/123>

Kind regards,
Springer Nature Author Service

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact our Author Service team at

RIGHTS

Employment check and publishing agreement

Corresponding authors need to complete their publishing agreement, also known as license to publish (LtP)

The document outlines the rights of the author and Springer Nature in relation to the use of the article and confirms the author's eligibility to publish their article

To generate the correct license to publish, the corresponding author selects their employment status, then clicks 'Confirm'

Authors sign their license and can download a copy for reference, allowing them to continue with the publishing process

Agree to publish

Before we can continue with the publication of your article, we need you, the corresponding author, to provide us with permission to publish.

Some governments require a tailored publishing agreement. So we can generate the right agreement for you, tell us if either of these options apply.

Are you, as the corresponding author:

☐ An employee of the United States Federal Government

☐ An employee of the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Canada or Australia

☐ Neither of the above

i If you, or part of your author group, are employees of:

- the European Commission
- an Intergovernmental Organisation (e.g. the IMF or World Bank)

You may need an alternative agreement. Please contact us.
